

Dog Walkers

Small Dog Specialist

You focus on walking dogs under 15 pounds, ensuring they get proper exercise without feeling overwhelmed. You use gentle handling and small-sized leashes to keep them comfortable.

High-Energy Breed Expert

You specialize in dogs that need a lot of exercise, such as Border Collies and Huskies. Your walks include running, agility exercises, and mental stimulation to keep them engaged.

Senior Dog Walker

You cater to older dogs who require slow, careful walks and special attention to joint health. You also offer shorter, more frequent walks to help with mobility.

Puppy Training Support

You specialize in puppies learning to walk on a leash. You use positive reinforcement to help them develop good walking habits while keeping their energy under control.

Multi-Dog Specialist

You have experience handling two or more dogs at once and ensuring each one gets proper attention. You're skilled in keeping the group calm and controlled.

Evening & Weekend Walker

Your service is ideal for busy owners who need flexible walking hours. You're available in the evenings and on weekends to accommodate work schedules.

Large Breed Specialist

You specialize in walking big dogs like Great Danes and Mastiffs. You know how to handle strong dogs safely and keep them well-behaved on a leash.

Reactive Dog Walker

You work with dogs that have behavioral challenges, such as leash aggression or fearfulness. You use calming techniques and training-based methods during your walks.

Adventure Walker

You take dogs on longer, nature-based walks such as hikes or trail walks, ensuring they get both physical and mental stimulation in a natural environment.

Luxury Walking Service

You offer a high-end experience with personalized attention, organic treats, GPS-tracked walks, and even photo updates for owners after each session.

Potential Clients

Owner of 2 Small Dogs

You focus on walking dogs under 15 pounds, ensuring they get proper exercise without feeling overwhelmed. You use gentle handling and small-sized leashes to keep them comfortable.

Owner of a Border Collie

Your dog needs to run and be mentally engaged. You're looking for a walker who can handle an energetic, intelligent dog and prevent boredom.

Owner of a Senior Lab

Your Lab is 12 years old and has arthritis. You need someone who understands senior dog care and can provide slow, short walks.

Busy Professional

You work long hours and need a flexible dog walker who can walk your dog in the evenings and on weekends when you're unavailable.

Owner of a New Puppy

Your puppy is excitable and still learning how to walk properly. You want someone who can reinforce training and handle puppy energy.

Owner of a Great Dane

You have a Great Dane who is friendly but very strong. You need a walker who can control a big dog without getting pulled.

Owner of a Reactive Dog

Your dog barks and lunges at other dogs while on walks. You need a walker who understands reactive dogs and can keep your pet calm.

Adventure Seeker

You have an active lifestyle and want a walker who can take your dog on hikes and nature trails, rather than just a neighborhood walk.

Tech-Savvy Owner

You like getting real-time updates on your dog's walks, including GPS tracking and photos. You want a walker who offers premium service and extra perks.

Luxury Walking Service

You offer a high-end experience with personalized attention, organic treats, GPS-tracked walks, and even photo updates for owners after each session.
